The views of those who matter most!

Wow what an amazing first term back at school we have had. It has been jam packed with trips, performances, open events and assemblies. We would like to say a huge thank you to all of our families for coming to support us at all of our school events. We love to have you involved and enjoy showing you all the amazing things we have been learning about. Don't forget to follow us on Twitter and keep up to date with what we are doing in class. You can find us by following @morley_newlands and then clicking on your child's year group page.

From the whole team at Newland News we would like to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We look forward to seeing you all in 2018!

Christmas Nativities

This week the children in Early Years and Key Stage 1 put on a fantastic performance in their Christmas Nativities. Nursery and Reception children performed 'Christmas Counts' whilst Key Stage 1 performed 'Lights, Camel, Action' with a take on Strictly Come Dancing. All of the children looked amazing and sang their hearts out. It was lovely to see so many family members attend and we hope you enjoyed it as much as we did.

Teacher of the week!

Carol Concert.

We really enjoyed taking part in the Key Stage 2 Carol Concert this week. We learnt a variety of Christmas songs such as Let it Snow, Silent night and White Christmas. A big thank you to Mr Parry and Mrs Fyffe for helping us put the concert together. We hope it put you all in the Christmas spirit.

Learning Lab!

In the Learning Lab this week is Year 3. Over the past half term the children have been learning all about Tudors. They started their topic with a Tudor day in which they were visited by Henry VIII and his Lords. Since then the children have continued to learn about the reign of Henry the VIII and the events that unfolded during this time in History.
